

6th GRADE READING LIST

Summer 2023

You must read both of these books over the summer:

Al Capone Does My Shirts by Gennifer Choldenko

Eleven by Tom Rogers

When you return in September, you will do one of the following to assess your understanding of each book: complete a writing assignment or work in a group to complete a project for the book. Make sure that you take notes as you read. You will be allowed to use these and the book to complete the assignment. No summaries will be permitted!

The following is the list of books you will be reading during the course of the year. You are expected to have each book on the first of the month unless otherwise directed.

September	Freak the Mighty by Rodman Philbrick
October	Class Dismissed by Allan Woodrow
November	Things Not Seen by Andrew Clements
December	Among the Hidden by Margaret Peterson Haddix
January	Unplugged by Gordon Korman
February	Absolutely Normal Chaos by Sharon Creech
March	Don't Look Behind You (2010 edition) by Lois Duncan
April	See You in the Cosmos by Jack Cheng
May	Because of Mr. Terupt by Rob Buyea
